

Fairy Forage

As you walk through the meadows and glades of the fairy kingdom, keep your eyes open. The fairies have left clues for you to answer these questions.

These will unlock fairy secrets, but you have to catch them first!

This fairy loves to read! What's she reading right now?

Find the fairy house that's "sew" cute. How was it made "just for you"?

Which house would really wake you up in the morning?

This fairy made her house with leftover change from her travels. Name three places in the world she's visited.

The Fairy King in the blue house loves the classics. What doth he say about how the elves and fairy sprites moveth?

BONUS: Name the play and playwright

Toadstools are colorful, but can be sort of bland. This farming fairy has found a way to spice things up! Look closely for the sign.

.

